

Hired Guns

- There are two disadvantages when using the market to allocate military service (or any civic obligations)
 - Poor people will be incentivized to buy in to military service because they have very few monetary opportunities
 - Military service requires patriotism to be performed well - people who do it for the pay won't do a great job